

Jason D. Miner
117 SW Naito Parkway
Portland, OR 97204

Interest: Fish and Recreational Fishing

Occupation: Fish Refuge Program Manager, Oregon Trout

With his knowledge of Redband Trout ecology, Mr. Miner was instrumental in establishing the Redband Trout Reserve contained in the Steens Mountain Cooperative Management and Protection Act of 2000. He was also an active participant in developing the final language of the bill during the fall of 2000. Mr. Miner holds graduate and undergraduate degrees in biology and is a member of the Oregon State Bar. He has also served on several advisory councils dealing with environmental issues and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Three Rivers Land Conservancy. He is an avid fisherman.